SUMMER ON THE BEACH . . . . . —LINOLEUM CUT BY PATRICIA CUNNINGHAM

Editor's Column

Two things have been bothering me excessively for weeks: Lawrence Livingston's master plan for the "conservation and enhancement" of Carmel and the rattle snake infestation on the ridge south of Malpaso Creek.

I have no quarrel with rattle snakes. They lie quietly in the grass hoping that they will escape the notice of the thundering thing that is coming nearer and nearer. And the thundering thing . . . me in my boots . . . is eager to expand the live and let live philosophy to include them. However, there are situations in which this philosophy does not work. So long as there are trails over territory I wish to traverse, the rattle snakes and I get along swimmingly. I can see where I am stepping. I can spot my friend in the trail, and with a flip of the heart, jump sideways. This is good for the waistline and stimulates the basic metabolism. On occasion, I have stood at a safe distance and admired my friend. He is beautiful, if you consider him objectively; he has a right to live and has a love life of sorts according to the University of California pam-

"Go West Young Man To The East" Says Rockwell

BY BOB KALLER

James C. Rockwell of Hatton Road took a train that was supposed to land him in Brazil—and ended up in Manila for 38 years.

The fabulous saga of this long-time president of the Manila Electric Co. began in Scranton, Pennsylvania, where he was born before the turn of the century. The family moved to New York shortly and Jim Rockwell was in the class of 1904 at Cornell as an electrical engineering student. Shortly after graduation he became involved with a man named Hurley who had invented a new track-laying machine for the railroads. The next few years found young Rockwell attempting to stablize the use of this extraordinary machine.

The depression of 1907 found him in La Grange, Georgia, in the mood to accept a steady job with an inter-urban railway company in Syracuse. Thence he went to Charleston, West Virginia, as a transportation superintendent and in 1911 the J. G. White organization, at that time a famous holding company for utilities interests all over the world, sent him a wire to come to New York for an interview on a job in Brazil.

Jim Rockwell took the train. Only en route the White home office received word that their Manila man had left, and when Jim got to the interview he found that he was as good as on a boat for the Philippines already. A hectic career culminating in his becoming general manager of Manila Electric in 1919, and President in 1937 followed. The only grim spot during this period was incarceration by the Japanese in Santa Tomas prison camp during the war years.

Although his health was seriously impaired, Jim Rockwell emerged from the Camp to take his place once again at the head of his company and when he re-

Coleman Breaks Salinas Record With Lusier Car

Rick Coleman, driving a Mark Lusier built car, set a new record at the Salinas drags Sunday, reaching 107.14 miles per hour from standing, on the quarter mile strip. Former record was 104 miles per hour.

Rick, who lives in Pacific Grove and works here at the Carmel Grocery, helped Lusier build and install a Cadillac engine with a four-carburetor manifold in a 1932 Ford roadster. Lusier cars have taken trophies and set records at Bonneville and most of the other top Western meets. His trophies string along a fifty foot shelf at Andre's Beauty Shop, of which Luzier is the proprietor.

Charcoal portraiture will be taught by Miss Kay Rodgers on Monday and Wednesday evenings at 7:30 o'clock in Room 13 at Sunset School. This class is for both adults and children.

Sketching and painting, with Charles Lee as instructor, will meet on Monday and Wednesday at 7:00 o'clock in Room 14 at the Carmel High School. Both adults and children may attend.

Mrs. Mary Dickinson will teach a class in sewing in Room 11 at the Carmel High School on Tuesday and Thursdays from 1:00 to 4:00 o'clock. This class is open to both adults and children.

A Sight-Reading Orchestra, with Mr. Jan de Jong as instructor, will meet on Monday at 7:30 o'clock in the Carmel High School cafeteria.

Community Cold To City Master Plan

Three points in the Larry Livingston, Jr., Master Plan meet with the disapproval of the Citizens' Committee said George Bestor, chairman of the group sponsoring last nights' Town Hall meeting in Sunset Auditorium.

"A City Hall situated at a focal point, creating a monument to bureaucracy, misses the spirit of Carmel," said Bestor, referring to Livingston's proposed civic center at the east end of the traffic closed Ocean Avenue pedestrian Mall."

Secondly, according to Bestor, there is "too much closing of Ocean Avenue. It would create a Stonestown-by-the-Sea." The object of the citizens' advisory committee report to Livingston is Carmel must "first and last, be a residential community," he emphasized. The committee also opposes "the loss of 70 commercial lots to create parking spaces," he continued.

Lastly, the committee is against the proposed Junipero four-lane highway to channel traffic through the city.

"I worry how people on one side of the town are going to get across Junipero to see their friends on the other side of Carmel," commented Bestor.

However, the citizens' commitee does approve of the external part of Livingston's plan, such as the parks, beaches and green belt, according to Chairman Bestor. He wants the external and internal parts of the plan separated, so that the committee's disagreement

Henry Hill Finds Shopping Block Plan "Unfortunate"

Yesterday the Pine Cone asked Henry Hill, San Francisco Architect, for his opinion of Lawrence Livingston Jr., Master Plan for the conservation and enhancement of Carmel. Mr. Hill has a home in Carmel, and has designed homes here which owe part of their distinction to their harmonious adjustment to the land they occupy and its trees and native cover.

Mr. Hill said, "I feel that Carmel is certainly a unique community, a most human one, and above all, a community of extraordinarily high and fine intelligence. Mr. Livingston's diagrammatic scheme of the town core appears to be an intellectual application of a super-block pattern upon what is, in reality, a very beautiful existing environment. This 'application to' may have an intellectual appeal, but to me it is inhuman, and does not 'grow from'. The present gridiron pattern works only to a partial extent; and the continuation of the gridiron in an even more rigid design is questionable. There does not seem to be a serious and realistic use of available open areas to incorporate within the design pattern.

"This, I know, is part of the fashionable shopping block center planning we are now seeing so much of; but to me it is most distressing and unfortunate."

There are four teams in the 8-11 age group with eleven players on each team which assure every boy a chance to see plenty of action in every game.

A league for 12-15 year olds is also in the process of being rigged but more players are needed before the directors can firm up the league. Sponsors, uniforms, equipment, and leadership are ready to go so get out and enjoy the fun if you are in the 12-15 age group. Practice sessions for this group will be held daily from 1:30 to 3 o'clock.

On the roster of the Carmel Color and Glass will be such good ones as Larry Thompson, Lyn Beckley, Tim Head, Tim Mosolf, Randy Mapstead, Rick Wilkerson, Craig Harder, Steve Cate, Ron Bennett, Captain Bob Bowman and Carlton Macey. Boys Town will be captained by Charley Konrad and will go with Pat Hall, Don Smith, Pete McArthur, Howdy King, Dan Aldrich, Mike Paul, Andre Pashin, Dennis Connell, Bob Wells, Captain Charley Konrad, Bob Carter and Fred Wells.

SIGN UP FOR SWIM CLASSES MONDAY MORNING

Free swimming classes provided by the Carmel Unified School District's summer recreation program will start at the high school pool next week and continue until August 25th. Monday, June 25th will be devoted to sign-ups and class organization and the actual in-the-water classes will start June 26th at 9 a.m. The classes are open to all school children who live in the Carmel school district.

Participants in the swim program must register at the high school gym between 9 a.m. and noon Monday in order to take part in the class work starting Tuesday morning. Group instruction will be given for non-swimmers, advanced beginners, intermediates, junior life-saving, diving and speed swimming. Four instructors, Fred Rainer, George Mosolf, Barbara Mitchell and John Thompson, will handle the swim classes this summer.

Swimmers must furnish their own suits and towels and all girls are required to wear swim caps. There will be bus service for those needing transportation to the pool. The bus runs will be made at 8:30 and 10:30 each weekday morning.

ADULT SOFTBALL LEAGUE SET FOR ANOTHER SEASON

The Major League of Peninsula softball, the Carmel Adult League, opens practice sessions this week in preparation for another season of plain and fancy softball. This Friday night, the Carmel Pros and the Carmel Police will cross bats in a practice tussle to shake out the kinks and make a test run to see if the old legs are still there. Practice sessions will be held next week and actual league play will begin the following week. The same Big Four which has competed in the Adult League in previous years will again be going after the top prize in the popular circuit. Defending the championship will be Jim Kelsey's Volunteer Firemen who are slowing down a bit but play smart and tricky softball. Manager Kelsey predicts the Firemen will be a shoo-in again this season. Challenging the Firemen for the top spot will be Chief Klaumann's rough and ready Police Department nine, Bob Bell's rejuvenated Lions Club aggregation, and the once-potent Carmel Pros skippered by Lloyd Miller. The Carmel Firemen are favored to repeat their 1955 victory but will have to be at full strength for every game to withstand the threats posed by the strengthened trailers.

Fund Set Up To Honor John Short And Aid Prisoners

A fund to commemorate the memory of the late John Douglas Short, ardent worker for civil liberties and the welfare of prisoners, has been established to assure a memorial to Mr. Short's work. All funds received will be placed with the American Civil Liberties Union or the California Service League, which aids prisoners and parolees.

Mr. Short, who was legal advisor at San Quentin Prison for many years retired from the prison to collaborate with Dr. Alfred Kinsey in gathering material about the legal aspects of sex crimes. Mr. Short, who died when about to retire to his home at the Big Sur, was from a pioneer Fresno and Carmel family. His family settled in Carmel at the turn of the century and he attended Carmel elementary and Monterey High School. His family later moved to Berkeley where he attended the University of California and studied law which he subsequently practised in San Francisco for many years prior to his association with San Quentin Prison. He spent summers in Carmel with his family, and his children, John, William, Kraig and Erik all attended schools on the peninsula. He always maintained his home at the Big Sur where his widow, Katherine Short, is now residing. Two of his children, John D. Short, Jr. and Mrs. Kraig Weston, are residents of the peninsula.

The committee serving to raise the commemorative fund are Mr. and Mrs. Morse Erskine, Sr.; Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Flippin, Chester Arthur III, Judge Richard Sims, Jr., Mr. Noel Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Morain and Mr. Douglas Rigg, formerly an associate warden at San Quentin and now warden at Stillwater, Minnesota, at whose suggestion the fund has been created.

An indefatigable worker in the cause of civil liberties, Short frequently volunteered his services to the American Civil Liberties Union. His efforts for prisoners at San Quentin in their rehabilitation and welfare brought them benefits and encouragement to face their problems. He was instrumental in organizing The Seekers Club at the prison, which brought distinguished lecturers from the fields of social, religious and philosophical studies to inject spirited discussion into the otherwise drab routine.

"In establishing the John Douglas Short Fund, we are attempting to put into balance a relationship with Douglas Short, who gave so much and took so little," explained Morain, who serves as treasurer of the fund.

Those who believe in the ideals of John Douglas Short can help perpetuate them with a contribution. Checks can be sent to the John Douglas Short Fund, c/o Lloyd Morain, 156 Montgomery Street, San Francisco, and may be designated whether for the ACLU or the California Service League.

Players Circle Production Opens Tomorrow Night

While successful amateur detectives appear in unexpected places, a nun in a convent might seem out of her depth in crime detection. Yet the Golden Bough Circle's new mystery drama High Ground, which opens tomorrow, makes Sister Mary Bonaventure, Gertrude Chappell, an entirely realistic and even brilliant detective, her dedicated and persistent efforts to see wrong righted even brings her into conflict with the kindly but sceptical Mother Superior, Polly Bowhay.

All the action takes place within the Convent of our Lady of Rheims isolated during a flash flood. The Mission San Carlos Borromeo has graciously tendered technical assistance in the production.

Directed by Charles Thomas, the remainder of the cast includes Jacqueline Grossman, Katherin McPhee, Florence Venn, Lewis Perkins, Robert Martinson, Charles F. Dery, Peg Miner, Michel Mackay, and Ruth Ware.

Production Staff: director, Charles Thomas; stage manager, Ginny Drew; properties, Ruth Anderson; assistant, Paul Stuart; set and construction, Church Chappell; wardrobe, Rhoda Johnson; music and sound effects, Melodi Brien; hairstyling, Henry Hairstylist.

WYNN BULLOCK SHOW

Fifty photographs by Wynn Bullock are currently on display at the M. H. de Young Museum in San Francisco until July 15. Many of these prints are studies of significant forms found in the rocks, trees, landscapes, and seascapes on the Monterey Peninsula where Bullock lives. Within the past year he has exhibited his work in three one-man shows and participated in six other exhibitions. At the present time he is represented along with Edward and Brett Weston, Ansel Adams and other of America's outstanding creative photographers in a show organized by the University of Kentucky for national circulation. His work is also included in the Eastman House collection assembled for showing in Asia as well as the photographic exhibition, Family of Man, organized by Edward Steichen for the Museum of Modern Art in New York City.

First Hearing On Master Plan Wed.

Two public hearings on the Larry Livingston, Jr., Master Plan are set by the Planning Commission for June 27 at 8:00 o'clock in the evening and July 11 at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, both in the council chambers at the City Hall.

This action took place at a special meeting of the Commission yesterday afternoon.

Under architectural matters in study session the Commission granted issuance of a building permit to D. Kirke Erskine, for his confectionery on property next to Mason's on Dolores Street. Demolition of an existing building and creation of the site has gone on this week. Fremont Rider obtained permission to install a solid metal-framed glass door, replacing a Dutch door, at the Hour Glass on property owned by B. F. Sowell. Fred Leidig may put four skylights in a garage building at the north-east corner of San Carlos and Seventh Streets.

Public hearings on July 25 were set for applications from Ethel Staniford to re-model four offices into two apartments in El Paseo Building and the erection of signs on the Putnam and Raggett and Kip's Grocery parking lot at the northwest corner of Mission and Seventh Streets.

The Land Use committee will consider Ken Brown's sign proposal for the Village Inn and report their findings at the June 27 meeting of the commission. Brown proposes to increase his footage from 70 to 74 feet by placing another sign on his Ocean Avenue frontage.

A report from the city council informed the commission that the council had denied Vincent Torras' Wermuth Transfer and Storage proposed excess footage signs.

The request of the Carmel Unified School District for designation of tentative parking area on the strip between Highway One and the county road, east of the highway, just north of the school, to be used, if and when the district builds an auditorium at the High School, was referred to the public improvement subcommittee for study. They will report their findings at the next study session of the Planning Commission.

Thousand And One Cities To Be Theme Of Rodeo Parade

The glittering Colmo del Rodeo, America's finest lighted night parade, will again be held this year as one of the highlights of "Big Week" in Salinas, July 19 to 22.

Theme of the 1956 presentation, Saturday evening, July 21, is "A Thousand and One Cities" and communities from all parts of the state are sending in their entries, according to James R. Parish, parade chairman.

Held in conjunction with the world-famous California Rodeo, the Colmo del Rodeo parade offers over $2,700 in prize money and is one of the two top parades in California in size of awards.

More than 100 units consisting of elaborately lighted and decorated floats, smartly uniformed bands, precision drill teams, champion drum and bugle corps and strutting drum majorette groups participate annually.

When the first California Rodeo was held at Salinas in 1911, it was decided that there should also be a night parade as a climax to the many rodeo festivities. Early day entrants were local people and the parade floats were homemade.

Each year the celebration has grown bigger and better until now it is estimated that nearly a quarter of a million people assemble in Salinas from all parts of the world to view the rodeo and parade. Participants journey many hundreds of miles to take part.

Sponsored by the Salinas Junior Chamber of Commerce, the Colmo del Rodeo Association is composed of young businessmen who have the creative ability to inject new combinations which go to provide the finest entertainment for full enjoyment of spectators.

Community Cold To Master Plan

with the central district will not defeat the fine outer features of the Livingston plan.

Bestor made these statements at the close of a Town Hall meeting after Larry Livingston, Jr., gave an hour and a half explanation of his plan to the almost 500 persons gathered in Sunset Auditorium.

Enthusiastic applause from the audience to each of Bestor's statements indicated that the majority of those present agreed with the citizens' committee's criticism of the plan.

Planning Commission Chairman Frank Putnam stated in opening remarks and re-iterated later during the question period.

"Whatever plan is proposed for the Carmel area must be acceptable to the majority of the property owners." He emphasized that Planning Commission hearings on June 27 and July 11 are for the citizens to state their opinions on the plan for action by the Commission.

Livingston in his lucid exposition of his proposed plan again urged Carmelites to project themselves into the future 25 years.

"Twelve thousand persons per day are coming into California," he stated. "In 1970 the expected population of the state is 25,000,000 people, San Francisco will have 5,000,000 population."

"Don't let blinding sentiment block you from reality," he warned, "face facts. You can't keep people from coming to Carmel. There must be change. There is only one place where there is no change, and I hope that you and I will meet there some day."

Livingston emphasized the flexibility of his plan. The lines shown on it are "not precise," he said, "but approximate locations of boundaries."

He remained firm in his traffic flow proposals; that the civic center is a community meeting place; the need for recreational facilities in Carmel; and above all off-street parking to save the merchants from being forced to the wall by outside regional shopping center competition. The off-street parking lots and Junipero street freeway would be parklike he stated.

The written questions submitted by members of the audience brought forth the fact that the plan would not be submitted to the voters, but that the Planning Commission hearings should show the public's opinion of the Livingston plan.

STUDENT RECITAL

A song recital by advanced students from the studio of Mary Lindsay-Oliver will be heard at the Town House on Wednesday at 3:00 o'clock. They are Marcia Hadden-Pratt, soprano; David Schoenbrod, bass-baritone; Valerie Hattery, mezzo-soprano and Richard Turner, baritone.

Old English, Irish, Welsh, Beethoven, Taubert, Lassen and Debussy selections with Mendelssohn and Knapp duets and a group of Negro Spirituals will finish with The Four Winds from The New Day—Lindsay-Oliver's major opus dedicated to World Peace.

These young singers have all proven themselves worth hearing, so we are likely to have a full house for this event. Tea will be served at four p.m.

SIGN PETITIONS HERE

Re-districting petitions are at the Pine Cone waiting to be signed by county citizens. These petitions ask that supervisorial representation be changed to meet population densities in county areas.

Other petitions are at the House That Jack Built; Carmel Grocery; Carmel Hardware; Enos Fouratt's and Corum Jackson's real estate offices; and the Rinky Dink.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

By Ruth Galvin Thornburg

The fun is about to begin . . . meaning that the summer reading club will start soon. The date for the first meeting is Saturday, June 23, at 10:00 o'clock in the morning, and that Saturday is this coming Saturday which is about day after tomorrow. Any child, grades two through eight, who wishes to enroll in the club may do so at any time after Saturday, even if he was unable to make it to the first meeting. Come one, come all, and join the fun. At this first kick-off meeting there will be an exhibit of new books for youngsters. Our Children's Librarian, Mrs. Heisinger, will talk about the new books, give bits of the plots, and what type of book each one is, so that the members may know what is in store for them reading-wise.

This 10:00 o'clock Saturday morning hour will be the regular time for meetings of the book club, and we hope that each Saturday morning the members will gather at the library to talk about their books, to tell why they liked certain ones, and to exchange views about their books. This summer the members will read their way around our own beloved country. Every member will have his own copy of a map of the United States, and as he reads each new book he will be given a brightly colored state map to paste upon the large one. At the end of a summer's reading he should have a gay map of our country, as well as a happy knowledge of good books.

New books we have in plentiful supply. Picture books and easy reading books are as charming as ever, and names of some famous writers are among their authors. The Haders have a new one entitled Home On the Range, which tells of a vacation small Jerry spent with his grandparents in Wyoming. In this book The Amiable Giant, Louis Slobodkin tells the story of a friendly giant who came down to pass the time of day. There is a new Mrs. Goose book by Carmel's Miriam Clark Potter. This one is called Our Friend Mrs. Goose, and it was illustrated by Mr. and Mrs. Zenas Potter. A little boy named Poncho is the hero of Theresa Smith's Poncho and the Pink Horse, and a boy from outer space is the hero of Felsen's The Boy Who Discovered the Earth, while the reader himself is the hero of Is This You? by Ruth Kraus.

For the older children there is a varied diet including horse stories, dog stories, science fiction, mysteries, a little poetry, and some young romances. If it's books, we have it, even to an enchanting book on good manners for the young which is called Manners to Grow On.

Let your child come in to see these new books while the collection is still together, meaning let him come in on Saturday morning, because after that these lovely books will be scattered all over town, each one helping some child have a happy time.

The Time Has Come .

So many friends have helped me learn about gardens and the care of flowers. One particular friend, an authority on camellias, is Jim Wilson, son of Mrs. Phillip Wilson of Carmel. Jim Wilson now lives in Millbrae, and has sent me a list of methods for the preservation of cut flowers.

To preserve roses longer and keep them fresh: slit stems up two inches and place in two quarts of water, add five drops of wood alcohol. For Sweetpeas: plunge stems into boiling water, then quickly into cold water. Snapdragons: strip lower leaves from stems, plunge stems into two quarts of water containing three tablespoons of baking soda. Tulips: place stem ends in boiling water for one minute.

Violets: tie in bunches and submerge flowers in water, then shake carefully. Zinnia: strip lower leaves from stems, place in two quarts of water containing two tablespoons of rock salt. Heliotropes: burn or char stems over flame, then place in cold water containing five drops of wood alcohol. Hydrangea: crush stems, remove lower leaves and place in water containing five drops of oil of peppermint. Marguerites: soak for one hour in solution of water containing one teaspoon of peppermint oil. Fuchsia: place two tablespoons of salt into two quarts of water. Gladiolus: place in cold water. To make tops curve, soak over-night and curves will develop.

Asters: place cut stems in quart of water to which one teaspoon of sugar has been added. Cala lilies: one-half cup of vinegar to two quarts of water. Leaves should lie flat in water. Gardenia and camellia both: spray flowers with water; place in refrigerator; sprinkle small amount of table salt over blooms. Carnations: five drops of oil of peppermint in two quarts of water; also for carnations: one-half cup of boric acid in one gallon of water.

Chrysanthemums: crush and burn stems up to three inches: place eight drops of peppermint oil in two quarts of water. Delphiniums: crush stems and plunge into water containing one tablespoon of wood alcohol for one quart of water.

Thank you, Jim Wilson, I will endeavor to follow up on all this valuable information.

A word of advice from the "horse's mouth"! Before you learn so much about the preservation of flowers, wouldn't it be a good idea first to learn how to grow them?

Letter To The Editor . . .

Salinas, Calif.,
June 18, 1956.

Editor:

Had anyone bothered to consult me (and why should they?), I could have warned that to get Benny Bufano to an appointed place at a scheduled hour, the U. S. State Department's practice should have been employed: that of padlocking (until destination reached or death do them part), to the courier's wrist or ankle, the precious object conveyed.

Shortly before the Korean conflict, Mr. Bufano had the entire Navy department in hysterics because of his gentle confusion as to protocol concerning time, clothing and other mores of men dedicated to the second-hand on the watch and the burnished brass on uniforms.

Stainless steel (his forte) was not available to civilians at that time and so Mr. Bufano happily accepted an invitation to visit Alameda Naval Air Station to sculpt (without pay) a statue for the CO, using stainless steel scrap.

NAS Alameda has many civilian employees, all of whom apparently disintegrate before the echo has died from the 4:30 quitting whistle. Benny, half-buried in steel scrap, would blink at the jet-propelled exodus, then return to his sorting. Hours later, in the darkened and vast overhaul and repair building, a watchman would stumble over the little sculptor, still puttering around the mound of steel scrap. After many phone calls to principals at the air station, Mr. Bufano would be firmly escorted from the base and placed aboard a bus for his San Francisco home, which was at that time (as I best recall) a loft over a warehouse where many of his statues were stored.

Benny's clothing also proved an embarrassment in a society where the slightest infraction of rules concerning dress could mean the brig.

When he first arrived at the base, the sculptor was in mufti: shapeless tweed trousers, properly upheld by a belt, which was, however, lacking a buckle and so was carelessly knotted about the waist. His shirt was unironed and open at the throat. Five minutes after his arrival, he lost the jacket.

Because of his chameleon nature which enables him to become part of any group and still retain an amazing individuality, Benny's costume soon became a pair of sailor's dress blue trousers, topped with an officer's many-insigniaed khaki shirt.

How he obtained the clothing is still a mystery, probably even to Mr. Bufano. It is quite conceivable that he showered somewhere, forgot where he placed his own garb, then wandered into a barracks here and a BOQ there, picking up substitutes as he ambered along.

He was delighted with the four-button flap front on the sailor's pants and seemingly unaware when some comedian placed a sailor's hat on his head at a crazy angle.

Navy men meeting Benny sauntering bemusedly along an NAS sidewalk didn't know whether to salute him as a whimsical officer or arrest him as a drunken gob.

Food was no problem for Benny while he was on shift at NAS. He seemed to eat only once in every three days. Then he'd patiently stand in line at the cafeteria, reach for the first plate of food his hand encountered, and wend his way to a table. The person immediately following him was stuck for the bill and was usually so confused, he paid it.

Navy men still spin yarns about Benny Bufano: the incredible sweetness of the man, his child-like simplicity, his puppyish trust that everyone he meets is a friend and will take care of him.

I can't think of anyone churlish enough to betray that trust.

—K. Wallace Madison.

103 Million, anyone?

—that's what the Brewing Industry contributed to California's economy last year

The brewers and sellers of beer and ale paid over $16,200,000 in California taxes last year—sixteen million that would have to be made up somewhere else if the Brewing Industry hadn't taken over a big share of the load.

In addition, Californians who depend on the brewing industry for their livelihood—spent more than $87 million for living expenses.

Put 'em both together and that makes $103 million plus—in the form of lower taxes and higher profits for everyone in our state.

ORDINANCE NO. 223 N.S.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA IMPOSING AN EXCISE TAX ON THE STORAGE, USE OR OTHER CONSUMPTION OF TANGIBLE PERSONAL PROPERTY.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Ordinance No. 130 N.S. and all amendments thereto is hereby amended to read as follows:

"Ordinance No. 130 N.S.

Section 1. DEFINITIONS. The following words and phrases, whenever used in this ordinance, shall be construed as defined in this section unless it appears from the context that a different meaning is intended.

A. "Sales Price" means that total amount for which tangible personal property is sold, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, without any deduction on account of any of the following:

(1) The cost of the property sold;

(2) The cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expenses;

(3) The cost of transportation of the property prior to its purchase.

The total amount for which the property is sold includes all of the following:

(1) Any services that are a part of the sale;

(2) Any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller.

"Sales price" does not include any of the following:

(1) Cash discounts allowed and taken on sales;

(2) The amount charged for property returned by customers when that entire amount is refunded either in cash or credit, but this exclusion shall not apply in any instance when the customer, in order to obtain the refund, is required to purchase other property at a price greater than the amount charged for the property that is returned.

(3) The amount charged for labor or services rendered in installing or applying the property sold.

(4) The amount of any federal tax imposed upon or with respect to retail sales whether imposed upon the retailer or upon the consumer and regardless of whether or not the amount of federal tax is stated to customers as a separate charge, and the amount of any California state sales or use tax. (The term "gross receipts" includes the amount of any manufacturer's or importer's excise tax included in the price of the property sold even though the manufacturer or importer is also the retailer thereof, and whether or not the amount of such tax is stated as a separate charge.)

(5) Transportation charges separately stated, if the transportation occurs after the purchase of the property is made.

B. "Use" includes the exercise of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership of that property; subject, however, to the following exceptions:

(1) It does not include the sale of that property in the regular course of business.

(2) It does not include the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the gross receipts from the sale of or the cost of which has been subject to sales or use tax under a sales or use tax ordinance, whether enacted in accordance with, or purporting to be in accordance with, Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code of the State of California by any other city and county, county other than Monterey County, or city in this state, or enacted in accordance with the organic law of any such city.

(3) It does not include the storage or use of tangible personal property in the transportation or transmission of persons, property or communications, or in the generation, transmission or distribution of electricity or in the manufacture, transmission or distribution of gas in intrastate, interstate or foreign commerce by public utilities which are regulated by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California.

(4) It does not include the use or consumption of property purchased by operators of common carrier and waterborne vessels to be used or consumed in the operation of such common carriers or waterborne vessels principally outside the City.

C. The word "Storage", as used in this article, includes any keeping or retention in the City for any purpose except sale in the regular course of business or subsequent use solely outside this City of tangible personal property purchased from a retailer.

Section 2. IMPOSITION AND RATE OF TAX. An excise tax is hereby imposed on the storage, use or other consumption in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea of tangible personal property purchased from any retailer on or after the effective date of this ordinance for storage, use or other consumption in said City at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sale price of the property.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, where the sales price of tangible personal property purchased for storage, use or other consumption in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea pursuant to a contract of sale actually executed in good faith prior to June 13, 1956, includes Carmel-by-the-Sea City sales or use tax, the rate of tax applied shall be that rate in effect when the contract is executed.

Section 3. USE TAX LEVIED IN SAME MANNER AS STATE TAX. The tax hereby levied, except as otherwise herein provided, is levied in the same manner; to the same extent and under the same conditions as use taxes are levied pursuant to Part I of Division 2 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code, known as the "Sales and Use Tax Law" as amended and in force and effect on June 13, 1956.

Section 4. ADOPTION OF STATE USE TAX LAW BY REFERENCE.

EXCEPTIONS.

A. All of the provisions of the "Sales and Use Tax Law" as amended and in force and effect on June 13, 1956, except the provisions pertaining solely to the "Sales Tax" and Sections 6008, 6009, 6011, 6201 to 6204, inclusive, 6207, 6226, 6241 to 6246, inclusive, 6355, 6403, 6453, 7052, 7056, 7057, 7101, 7102, 7151, 7152 and 7153, are hereby adopted and made a part of this ordinance as though fully set forth herein, and all provisions of any other ordinance in conflict therewith are inapplicable to this ordinance and the tax hereby imposed.

B. The term "sales price" shall not include the amount of any California State sales tax or use tax.

C. All of the provisions of the "Sales and Use Tax Law" hereby adopted providing for the adoption of rules and regulations and for hearings on the part of the State Board of Equalization shall be performed by the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea. All other provisions of the state "Sales and Use Tax Law" hereby adopted providing for the performance of official action on the part of the State Board of Equalization shall be performed by the City Clerk.

D. The City of Carmel-by-the-Sea shall be deemed substituted for the State of California whenever the state is referred to in said "Sales and Use Tax Law."

E. The City Attorney of Carmel-by-the-Sea shall be deemed substituted for the Attorney General whenever the Attorney General is referred to in said "Sales and Use Tax Law."

F. The City Clerk shall be deemed substituted for the State Controller and State Board of Control whenever the State Controller or State Board of Control are referred to in said "Sales and Use Tax Law."

G. The County of Monterey shall be deemed substituted for the County of Sacramento whenever the County of Sacramento is referred to in said "Sales and Use Tax Law."

Section 5. ADOPTION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS BY REFERENCE. The rules and regulations of the State Board of Equalization pertainihg to the interpretation, administration and enforcement of the "Sales and Use Tax Law," insofar as applicable, shall apply to the interpretation of this ordinance until specifically abandoned by the rules and regulations adopted by the City Council pursuant to this ordinance.

Section 6. INTERPRETATION. The inclusion of any clause, portion or part of the "Sales and Use Tax Law," Part 1, Division 2, of the Revenue and Taxation Code of the State of California, verbatim in this ordinance shall not in or of itself be deemed to exclude any of the remaining provisions of said "Sales and Use Tax Law" that are made a part hereof by reference only.

Section 7. DUTY TO COLLECT TAX. Every retailer maintaining a place of business in this City shall apply to the City Clerk for authorization to collect the tax imposed by this ordinance. Any retailer not maintaining a place of business in this City may apply to the City Clerk for authorization to collect the tax hereby imposed. Upon receipt of any application in such form as required by him, the City Clerk, in the case of a retailer maintaining a place of business in the City, shall authorize, and in the case of a retailer not maintaining a place of business in the City, may authorize the applicant to make such collections and to forward the same to the City Clerk.

Section 8. PERSONS LIABLE TO TAX. Every person storing, using or otherwise consuming in this City tangible personal property purchased from a retailer, is liable for the tax; provided, however, no tax shall be due hereunder if the tax imposed by Ordinance No. 195 N.S. of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea has been paid on the sale of such property. The liability of such person is not extinguished until the tax has been paid to the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea except that a receipt from a retailer authorized pursuant to Section 7 hereof to collect the tax, given to the purchaser pursuant to Section 9 hereof, is sufficient to relieve the purchaser from further liability for the tax to which the receipt refers.

Section 9. COLLECTION OF TAX BY RETAILER. Every retailer who is authorized by the City Clerk to collect the tax imposed by this ordinance and who makes sales of tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in this City, not exempted under the provisions of this ordinance, shall collect the tax from the purchaser at the time of making the sale, or, if the storage, use or other consumption of the tangible personal property is not then taxable hereunder, at the time the storage, use or other consumption becomes taxable. Upon collecting the tax, the retailer, on demand, shall give to the purchaser a receipt therefor in the manner and form prescribed by the City Clerk. The tax so collected by the retailer shall be held in trust by him for the City and shall be paid to the City by the retailer in the manner and at the times elsewhere provided in this ordinance.

Section 10. SEPARATE DISPLAY OF TAX FROM LIST OR OTHER PRICE. The tax so collected by the retailer from the purchaser shall be displayed separately from the list price, the price advertised in the premises, the marked price or other price on the sales check or other proof of sale.

Section 11. PERSONAL PROPERTY TO WHICH TAX APPLIES. Except as otherwise specifically exempted, the tax hereby imposed applies to all tangible personal property located in this City and purchased from a retailer; provided, however, that if the retailer in good faith takes from the purchaser a certificate that the property was purchased prior to the effective date of this ordinance or was not purchased for storage, use or consumption in this City and has not been nor will be so stored, used or consumed, he shall be relieved of liability to collect and pay the tax. The certificate shall be signed by and bear the name of the purchaser, shall indicate the address of the purchaser and the place where such tangible personal property will be stored, used or consumed, the date of purchase, and shall be substantially in such form as the City Clerk may prescribe.

Section 12. REGISTRATION OF RETAILERS. Every retailer selling tangible personal property for storage, use or other consumption in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and which retailer maintains a place of business in said City or acts through agents located in said City and which retailer is not licensed under the provisions of Ordinance No. 222 N.S., shall register with the City Clerk and give the name and address of such agent or agents and office or other place of business in the City.

Section 13. DUE DATE OF TAXES. Taxes imposed by this ordinance are due and payable to the City Tax Collector on or before the last day of the month next succeeding each quarterly period, the first quarterly payment to be due and payable under this ordinance on or before the last day of July, 1956. The City Tax Collector may require returns and payment of the amount of taxes for quarterly periods other than calendar quarters depending upon the principal place of or the nature of the business of the seller or retailer or may require returns and payment of the amount of taxes for other than quarterly periods.

Section 14. RETURNS. Each return filed by a retailer shall show the total sale price of the property sold by him during the reporting period in respect of which he collected the tax hereby imposed. Each return filed by a purchaser shall show the total sale price of the property purchased by him during the reporting period, in respect of which a tax is due under this ordinance. All returns shall also show the amount of the taxes for the period covered by the return and such other information as the City Tax Collector deems necessary to the proper administration of this ordinance.

Section 15. EXTENSION OF TIME. WAIVER OR COMPROMISE. The City Tax Collector shall have the power, for good cause shown, to extend for a period of not to exceed thirty-one (31) days the time for making any return or paying any amount required to be paid under this ordinance, when requested so to do in writing, before the same becomes delinquent. The City Tax Collector may, with the written approval of the City Attorney, waive or compromise any penalty or interest that would otherwise accrue under the provisions of this ordinance. The City Tax Collector shall make and transmit to the City Council quarterly a detailed report of any sums so waived or compromised with the reasons therefor.

Section 16. SCHEDULES FOR PAYMENT OF TAX. The City Council, by resolution, shall adopt rules prescribing methods and schedules for the collection and payment of the tax. Such schedules shall be so determined as to facilitate collection of this tax at the same time that the retailer collects the tax imposed under the California Sales and Use Tax Law and so as to produce an average tax return of one percent (1%) on all purchases subject to the use tax.

Section 17. SUIT FOR TAX. All taxes hereby levied shall be payable to the City Tax Collector and any civil suit for the collection thereof may be filed in any court of competent jurisdiction in the State of California, and the City Attorney of said City shall prosecute the action.

Section 18. RESALE CERTIFICATE. The City Tax Collector may at his option accept a State of California Resale Certificate as evidence that any sale is not a sale for storage, use or consumption in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, or he may in his discretion require an affidavit from the seller setting forth such information respecting such sale as he deems necessary to determine the nature of such sale.

Section 19. DISPOSITION OF PROCEEDS. All monies collected under and pursuant to the provisions of this ordinance shall be deposited and paid into the General Fund of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Section 20. DIVULGING OF INFORMATION FORBIDDEN. ORDINANCE NO. 224 N.S.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE ORDINANCE CODE OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA IMPOSING A CITY SALES AND USE TAX; PROVIDING FOR THE PERFORMANCE BY THE STATE BOARD OF EQUALIZATION OF ALL FUNCTIONS INCIDENT TO THE ADMINISTRATION, OPERATION AND COLLECTION OF THE SALES AND USE TAX HEREBY IMPOSED; SUSPENDING THE PROVISIONS OF ORDINANCE NO. 222 N.S. & 223 N.S. DURING SUCH TIME AS THIS ORDINANCE IS OPERATIVE; AND PROVIDING PENALTIES FOR VIOLATIONS THEREOF.

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. The Ordinance Code is amended by the additions thereto of the following sections:

Section 401. SHORT TITLE. This ordinance shall be known as the Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Ordinance of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Section 402. PURPOSE. The City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea hereby declares that this ordinance is adopted to achieve the following, among other, purposes, and directs that the provisions hereof be interpreted in order to accomplish those purposes:

(a) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which complies with the requirements and limitations contained in Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code of the State of California;

(b) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which incorporates provisions identical to those of the Sales and Use Tax Law of the State of California insofar as those provisions are not inconsistent with the requirements and limitations contained in Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code;

(c) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which imposes a one percent (1%) tax and provides a measure therefor that can be administered and collected by the State Board of Equalization in a manner that adapts itself as fully as practical to, and requires the least possible deviation from, the existing statutory and administrative procedures followed by the State Board of Equalization in administering and collecting the California State Sales and Use Taxes;

(d) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which can be administered in a manner that will, to the degree possible consistent with the provisions of Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code, minimize the cost of collecting city sales and use taxes and at the same time minimize the burden of record keeping upon persons subject to taxation under the provisions of this ordinance;

(e) To adopt a sales and use tax ordinance which can be administered in a manner that will exclude the receipts of particular sales from the measure of the sales tax imposed by this City which have been included in the measure of the sales tax imposed by any other city and county, county other than the county in which this city is located, or city in this State, and avoid imposing a use tax on the storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property in this City when the gross receipts from the sale of, or the use of, that property has been subject to a sales or use tax by any other city and county, county other than the county in which this city is located, or city in this State, pursuant to a sales and use tax ordinance enacted under the provisions of Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code.

Section 403. OPERATIVE DATE, CONTRACT WITH STATE. This ordinance shall become operative on July 1, 1956, and prior thereto this City shall contract with the State Board of Equalization to perform all functions incident to the administration and operation of this sales and use tax ordinance; provided, that if this City shall not have contracted with the said State Board of Equalization, as above set forth, prior to July 1, 1956, this ordinance shall not be operative until the first day of the first calendar quarter following the execution of such a contract by the City and by the State Board of Equalization, provided further that this ordinnace shall not become operative prior to the operative date of the Uniform Local Sales and Use Tax Ordinance of the County of Monterey.

Section 404. SALES TAX.

(a) (1) For the privilege of selling tangible personal property at retail a tax is hereby imposed upon all retailers in the city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the gross receipts of the retailer from the sale of all tangible personal property sold at retail in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea on and after the operative date of this ordinance.

(2) For the purposes of this ordinance, all retail sales shall be presumed to have been consummated at the place of business of the retailer unless the tangible personal property sold is delivered by the retailer or his agent to an out-of-state destination or to a common carrier for delivery to an out-of-state destination. Delivery charges shall be included in the gross receipts by which the tax is measured, regardless of the place to which delivery is made, when such charges are included in the measure of the sales or use tax imposed by the State of California. In the event a retailer has no permanent place of business in the State of California, or has more than one place of business, the place or places at which retail sales are consummated shall be as determined under rules and regulations prescribed and adopted by the Board of Equalization.

(b) (1) Except as hereinafter provided, and except insofar as they are inconsistent with the provisions of Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code, all of the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of said Code, as amended and in force and effect on July 1, 1956, applicable to sales taxes are hereby adopted and made a part of this section as though fully set forth herein.

(2) Wherever, and to the extent that, in Part 1 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code the State of California is named or referred to as the taxing agency, the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea shall be substituted therefor. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to require the substitution of the name of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea for the word "State" when that word is used as part of the title of the State Controller, the State Treasurer, the State Board of Control, the State Board of Equalization, or the name of the State Treasury, or of the Constitution of the State of California; nor shall the name of the City be substituted for that of the State in any section when the result of that substitution would require action to be taken by or against the City or any agency thereof, rather than by or against the State Board of Equalization, in performing the functions incident to the administration or operation of this ordinance; and neither shall the substitution be deemed to have been made in those sections, including, but not necessarily limited to, sections referring to the exterior boundaries of the State of California, where the result of the substitution would be to provide an exemption from this tax with respect to certain gross receipts which would not otherwise be exempt from this tax while those gross receipts remain subject to tax by the State under the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code; nor to impose this tax with respect to certain gross receipts which would not be subject to tax by the State under the said provisions of that Code; and, in addition, the name of the City shall not be substituted for that of the State in Sections 6701, 6702 (except in the last sentence thereof), 6711, 6715, 6737, 6797 and 6828 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code as adopted.

(3) If a seller's permit has been issued to a retailer under Section 6068 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code, an additional seller's permit shall not be required by reason of this section.

(4) There shall be excluded from the gross receipts by which the tax is measured:

(i) The amount of any sales or use tax imposed by the State of California upon a retailer or consumer.

(ii) Receipts from the sale of tangible personal property upon which a sales or use tax has become due by reason of the same transaction to any other city and county, county other than the county in which this city is located, or city in this State under a sales or use tax ordinance enacted by that city and county, county other than the county in which this city is located, or city in this State in accordance with Part 1.5 of Divison 2 of this said Revenue and Taxation Code.

(iii) Receipts from sales to operators of common carrier and waterborne vessels of property to be used or consumed in the operation of such common carriers or waterborne vessels principally outside of this city.

Section 405. USE TAX.

(a) An excise tax is hereby imposed on the storage, use or other consumption in the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea of tangible personal property purchased from any retailer on or after the operative date of this ordinance, for storage, use or other consumption in the city at the rate of one percent (1%) of the sales price of the property. The sales price shall include delivery charges when such charges are subject to State sales or use tax regardless of the place to which delivery is made.

(b) (1) Except as hereinafter provided, and except insofar as they are inconsistent with the provisions of Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code, all of the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of said Code, as amended and in force and effect on July 1, 1956, applicable to use taxes are hereby adopted and made a part of this section as though fully set forth herein.

(2) Wherever, and to the extent that, in Part 1 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code the State of California is named or referred to as the taxing agency, the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea shall be substituted therefor. Nothing in this subdivision shall be deemed to require the substitution of the name of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea for the word "State" when that word is used as part of the title of the State Controller, the State Treasurer, the State Board of Control, the State Board of Equalization, or the name of the State Treasury, or of the Constitution of the State of California; nor shall the name of the City be substituted for that of the State in any section when the result of that substitution would require action to be taken by or against the City or any agency thereof rather than by or against the State Board of Equalization, in performing the functions incident to the administration or operation of this ordinance; and neither shall the substitution be deemed to have been made in those sections, including but not necessarily limited to, sections referring to the exterior boundaries of the State of California, where the result of the substitution would be to provide an exemption from this tax with respect to certain storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property which would not otherwise be exempt from this tax while such storage, use or other consumption remains subject to tax by the State under the provisions of Part 1 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code, or to impose this tax with respect to certain storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property which would not be subject to tax by the State under the said provisions of that Code; and in addition, the name of the City shall not be substituted for that of the State in Sections 6701, 6702 (except in the last sentence thereof), 6711, 6715, 6737, 6797 and 6828 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code as adopted.

(3) There shall be exempt from the tax due under this section:

(i) The amount of any sales or use tax imposed by the State of California upon a retailer or consumer.

(ii) The storage, use or other consumption of tangible personal property, the gross receipts from the sale of or the cost of which has been subject to sales or use tax under a sales or use tax ordinance enacted in accordance with Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code by any other city and county, county other than the county in which this city is located, or city in this State.

(iii) The storage or use of tangible personal property in the transportation or transmission of persons, property or communications, or in the generation, transmission or distribution of electricity or in the manufacture, transmission or distribution of gas in intrastate, interstate or foreign commerce by public utilities which are regulated by the Public Utilities Commission of the State of California.

(iv) The use or consumption of property purchased by operators of common carrier and waterborne vessels to be used or consumed in the operation of such common carriers or waterborne vessels principally outside the City.

Section 406. AMENDMENTS. All amendments of the said Revenue and Taxation Code enacted subsequent to the effective date of this ordinance which relate to the sales and use tax and which are not inconsistent with Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the said Revenue and Taxation Code shall automatically become a part of this ordinance.

Section 407. ENJOINING COLLECTION FORBIDDEN. No injunction or writ of mandate or other legal or equitable process shall issue in any suit, action or proceeding in any court against the State or this City, or against any officer of the State or this City, to prevent or enjoin the collection under this ordinance, or Part 1.5 of Division 2 of the Revenue and Taxation Code, of any tax or any amount of tax required to be collected.

Section 408. EXISTING SALES AND USE TAX ORDINANCE(S) SUSPENDED. At the time this ordinance goes into operation, the provisions of Ordinance(s) No.(s) 222 N.S. & 223 N.S. shall be suspended and shall not again be of any force or effect until and unless for any reason the State Board of Equalization ceases to perform the functions incident to the administration and operation of the sales and use tax hereby imposed; provided, however, that if for any reason it is determined that the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea is without power to adopt this ordinance, or that the State Board of Equalization is without power to perform the functions incident to the administration and operation of the taxes imposed by this ordinance, the provisions of Ordinance(s) No.(s) 222 N.S. & 223 N.S. shall not be deemed to have been suspended, but shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect at the rate of one percent (1%) continuously from and after July 1, 1956. Upon the ceasing of the State Board of Equalization to perform the functions incident to the administration and operation of the taxes imposed by this ordinance, the provisions of Ordinance(s) No.(s) 222 N.S. & 223 N.S. shall again be in full force and effect at the rate of one percent (1%). Nothing in this ordinance shall be construed as relieving any person of the obligation to pay to the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea any sales or use tax accrued and owing by reason of the provisions of Ordinance(s) No.(s) 222 N.S. & 223 N.S. in force and effect prior to and including June 30, 1956.

Section 409. PENALTIES. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punishable by a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment for a period of not more than six (6) months in the City Jail, or the County Jail of Monterey County, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

Section 410. SEVERABILITY. If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion of this ordinance, including but not limited to any exemption, is for any reason held to be invalid or unconstitutional by the decision of any Court of competent jurisdiction, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea hereby declares that it would have adopted this ordinance and each section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or portion thereof, irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, sentences, clauses, phrases or portions be declared invalid or unconstitutional.

Section 411. EFFECTIVE DATE. This ordinance, inasmuch as it provides for a tax levy for the usual current expenses of the City shall, under the provisions of Section 1 of Article IV of the Constitution, take effect immediately, but shall not supersede previous Sales and Use Tax Ordinances until July 1st, 1956.

Section 2. That the City Clerk of said City is hereby instructed to cause this Ordinance to be published once in the CARMEL PINE CONE, the official newspaper of said City, within fifteen (15) days after its final passage and approval.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA, this 13th day of June, 1956, by the following vote:

AYES COUNCILMEN: Lyon, Patnude, Chitwood, Buffington, Whitaker.

REVIEWING THE SINGING WILDERNESS,
BY SIGURD F. OLSON

During my last three years as Western Representative of the National Parks Association I have had many contacts with our President, Sigurd F. Olson. Most of them have been rather superficial but during the last two weeks I have had a fine opportunity for a more intimate acquaintance with him. This has come about entirely through reading very slowly, savoring as I went along, his new book, The Singing Wilderness. (Knopf, $4.00).

Reviewing a book by my "boss" puts me in a rather difficult position. I am determined, however, to be entirely objective about it. I am sure that I could be just as enthusiastic over it, if I had never heard of him before. Anyone who loves the wilderness as he does is a blood brother of mine. There is a strong bond between all the members of this brotherhood.

First, a word about the physical make-up of the book. During my thirty years as a librarian, in the course of which I handled appraisingly many thousands of books, I never came across one that appealed to me more as a painstaking and sympathetic job of clothing the spirit of a book in appropriate print, paper and binding. This task was made easier by the 38 superb black-and-white drawings by Francis Lee Jacques, one for each chapter heading and one for each of the four sections of the book, Spring, Summer, Autumn and Winter.

Sig, as all his friends call him, is an educator and a conservationist who has lived in the north country at Ely, Minnesota, for many years. Here, close to the great string of lakes along the Canadian border known as the Quetico-Superior country, used by the old French voyageurs as a canoe-way, he became known as the most famous guide of the region. It is these experiences that he has drawn upon in writing the delightful series of essays.

Wilderness protection has been a very controversial subject in recent years and Sig has been in the thick of the great battle, now happily won on the U. S. side of the border, to preserve the wilderness character of the Quetico-Superior region. There is no hint of this in the book, however. Instead, it reflects the attitude of calm contemplation that is natural to everyone closely in touch with the earth and its waterways. Wilderness is defined in the book, not through any conscious effort of semantics, but by a sharing of experiences and musings between the author and his readers.

Following Sig through the four seasons in his ramblings in his favorite wilderness haunts, we listen, at times in rather nostalgic vein, to the singing that is perhaps best typified by the calling of the loons. In the introductory chapter he declares that the book is "concerned with the simple joys, the timelessness and perspective found in a way of life that is close to the past".

It is a book that will be of interest to all lovers of the out-of-doors but especially to fishermen, bird watchers, canoeists and skiers, for Sig is all of these. An all-around man has written a great all-around book. His friends are all rejoicing at the appearance of the book on the N. Y. Times best-seller list. It would seem that people must be waking up to the wonders of the wilderness.

LEND AN EAR

The lad in the picture looks as if he may need a new one before long but the reason we ask you to lend us an ear is because we would like to pass on a bit of information you might like to have.

The rates you have to pay for water, wherever you live, are determined primarily by the cost of the plant required to produce and deliver it.

For example: the company which operates this system also operates the system which serves the City of San Marino in Los Angeles County. In San Marino water rates are about half what they are here on the Peninsula. The reason is simple. Because of the flat character of the terrain in that area, the nearness of the water supply and the type of production (from wells only), the cost of the San Marino plant is less than the cost of the plant needed to serve the Monterey Peninsula. It's this difference in plant cost that makes the difference in rates.

Have you seen the graphic relief map of your water system at 481 Tyler Street, in Monterey?

Present For Hazel

A call from Chico, on Saturday, informed Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKinstry that twins had been born that day to Paul's son, Ted, and Ted's wife, Dottie. Saturday was also Mrs. McKinstry's birthday, and she was delighted with the unexpected present of Kevin Paul, weighing nearly six pounds, and Sharon Maureen, not quite five pounds. Sharon will have to spend a short time in an incubator until she can increase her weight to a full five pounds. Also excited by the twins' arrival was their two year old sister, Sandy.

Next day, Ted was absent from his duties as announcer at the Chico radio station, but his replacement on the Lucky Lager program told listeners that Ted was away in honor of the twins arrival on the eve of Father's Day.

The McKinstrys hope to go to Chico this month to see the new babies, but, if this is not possible, plan to go in August, accompanied by Paul's daughter, Joyce, and her husband, Arthur Biscoe, who will be visiting here from Poughkeepsie, New York.

"Mommy, you goofed!"

Tasha Doner looked at her mother, Rosa Doner, still aboard the Vistadome when it pulled out of the Oakland station on Saturday morning, and remarked, "Mommy, you goofed!" Rosa was not alone in her goofing, also surprised to be aboard the moving train were Don Doner, her husband, and James Campbell. A quick dash to the exit proved that they were securely locked in and headed east.

The conductor was sought and 20 minutes later the shamefaced trio were put off the train at a special stop in the sparsely settled outskirts of Oakland. No one could tell them how to get back to the ferry on which they had crossed to Oakland from San Francisco. They trudged 20 blocks till they came to a drug store and found where they could catch a bus back to the ferry slip. Two hours later they were in San Francisco, footsore and weary.

Tasha in the meantime was well on her way East on the Vistadome with Jim Campbell's daughter, Susan, and Mrs. Virginia Mitchell and her daughter, Greta. The baggage in their compartment was neatly put away, the work of Rosa and Don and Jim. They had been so busy helping that they had failed to heed the signals to leave the train before it started.

Virginia Mitchell is returning East to live in Philadelphia and complete work on her doctorate at Columbia University School of Social Work. She has been the psychiatric social worker with the Family Service of the Community Chest here for the past several years.

Susan Campbell will visit her mother's relatives in upstate New York and Tasha Doner, staying with relatives and friends will spend time in New York, Newport, Rhode Island; Washington, D.C., and Boston before coming home in August.

Two days will be spent by the girls and Mrs. Mitchell in Philadelphia before they disperse for the summer and she has promised to take them to Valley Forge and to see the Liberty Bell.

Organ Society Elects Officers

CWO Fred Lewis is the new president of the Hammond Organ Society, elected on Sunday afternoon at a meeting of the group in the Carmel Woods home of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Graham. Dr. Bill Stevens is vice-president; Mrs. Ellene Purdy, recording secretary; Margaret McIntire, treasurer; Ed Graham, corresponding secretary; Fred Lewis, chairman of the program committee, working with Mrs. Glen Wilson and Mrs. Ed Graham. Following the election, retiring president, Dr. Balcar, was presented with a gift from the society by Mrs. Ed Graham.

Gene Bolton opened the musical program playing favorite dinner music selections. Then Fred Lewis presented five numbers after which several members participated in a "jam" session.

The July meeting of the Society will be held on the afternoon of July 15, in Carmel Valley at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Norman Gaeden.

Mohler Speaks To Writers

Charles Mohler will go to Los Angeles next week to speak at the Pacific Coast Writers Conference on June 29. He will tell how A Publisher Looks At A Manuscript. Until two months ago Mohler was associate editor of Rinehart and Company, publishers. He has resigned and plans to devote his time to his own writing. Next month with his wife, Hazel, and son, Conrad, he will leave Carmel for a year in Europe. Thirty days of this time the Mohlers will spend as guests of the Spanish Tourist Office while Chuck and Hazel gather material for articles on Spain. They plan to write about other parts of Europe which they visit, too. One year old Conrad won't be writing, although his father thinks "he ought to start soon, in self-defence."

Danelz Family Europe Bound

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Danelz and their son, Greg, will leave on Sunday to drive to New York. There they will store the car and board the United States for an Atlantic crossing to Le Havre. In France they have another car waiting to take them to Frankfurt, where they will visit their daughter, Marcia, and her husband, Peter Lyon, son of Mayor and Mrs. Horace Lyon. Peter is stationed in Frankfurt with the army and was joined by Marcia on New Years Eve.

After Frankfurt the Danelz' will drive through Austria, Denmark, Switzerland, Belgium, France and Holland before returning to the United States in September.

Greg has just finished his first year at the University of Colorado, and, since the close of school, has been visiting in Seattle. He returned here yesterday.

Don Clampett Flying Abroad

After 20 years of staying in Carmel, except for trips to San Francisco, Don Clampett is planning several months in Europe and Africa. He leaves San Francisco by air on June 28, then a few hours in New York that day, and the next afternoon, June 29, will be in London where he flies immediately to Paris to be met by his brother, Bob, who is living in the French capital employed by Frank Grad and Sons, Seelye, Stevenson, Value and Knecht, the biggest airport construction firm in the world.

Together, Bob and Don will explore Paris, relive the years they spent there as children when their father, the late Dr. Frederick W. Clampett, was rector of the English speaking Episcopal Church in Paris, and then leave for the Riviera. Bob is taking a month's vacation while Don is in Europe and plans to fly Don all over North Africa showing him the airports he has constructed.

Don is also going to Scotland to play golf before he comes back to Carmel, maybe in two months and maybe longer.

Williams And Lofton Return

Dr. Russell Williams and Richard Lofton drove into Carmel on Friday morning tanned and fit after a month in the Arizona, New Mexico desert country. They had camped in Canyon de Chelly, across from the White House ruin, surrounded by Navajos, some of whom were observing tribal rites each evening at dusk. The cries of the Navajos echoed and re-echoed from the precipitous walls of the canyon creating an eerie effect as dusk settled. Dick Lofton ran out of canvas in Monument Valley but he already had painted profusely wherever he and Russell Williams had been, including much of Monument Valley. They returned home through the Hopi country driving all night the last night so as to be home on Friday, graduation day for Russell William's son, Red, from Carmel High School.

Letters To The Editor . . .

Sacramento, California,
June 14, 1956.

Editor, Pine Cone Cymbal,
Carmel, California.

Dear Sir:

From the Purple Mountain in Killarney, from the moors of Scotland, from Lorna Doone's Devonshire across Holland to the Germany that sings, even on ship in the China Sea:—"Roseselein auf der Haide" to Denmark's Aalborg, the heather now is "in the Purple".

The little Kingdom on the Baltic to which Saxon King Alfred once paid "Danegeld" (you can see his crudely minted coins in Visby Museum) is an example of how our National Parks concept has been radiated world-wide. Belgian Congo has King Albert National Park. (He was our guest in Yosemite.) Uganda dedicated Queen Elizabeth II National Park at the Coronation.

Ceylon saves wild elephants, also peacocks, from big game hunter extinction in Ruhuna also Wilpattu N.P. It is hoped the Java tiger can be rescued from extinction on Undung Kulon.

Denmark's Rebild National Park has interest for Americans because Denmark, (which has furnished U.S.A. so many desirable immigrants), celebrates our 4th of July there. Chief Justice Warren gave its 1955 address. When writer was at one celebration there were unfurled also California's Bear Flag, Texas' Lone Star Banner, the standards of the 46 other states.

Why not add a few new National Park visits in this summer's automobiling? They constitute an example of American Know How exported to many lands.

Faithfully,
C. M. Goethe.

Editorials...

phlet I came across some years ago.

It is when I want to traverse territory unequipped with trails that the rattle snake and I run into difficulties. He'll still lie quietly hoping to escape notice, and I still desire ardently to live and let live but when you can't see where you're stepping until you've nearly stepped, you are likely to put your big foot right down on the rattler. At that point the rattler must face up to the fact that he can no longer escape notice. If something stepped on me, causing pain and panic, I'd retaliate, and I am convinced that if I should inadvertently step on a rattle snake he will retaliate. And my boots reach only half way up the calf of my leg.

There are trails here and there on the ridge south of Malpaso Creek and when I was up there three weeks ago, I spotted one rattler on the trail and jumped. But there are large areas where there is no trail and the other rattler, the one lying so quietly in the short grass, I did not see until I was over him. It was my good fortune and his that he happened to be lying in the middle of my stride and not at the end of it.

I want to go up on that ridge again. It is a pleasant climb and the view is very satisfactory, but I cannot enjoy myself walking over territory I know is rattle snake infested and not be able to see where I am putting my feet. I do not propose to gather together the local hikers and conduct a rattle snake slaughter drive. I do propose that we have a trail day, providing we can get permission from the property owners. A trail starting from Highway No. 1 and following the ridge would provide a magnificent walk, right up to the crest of Palo Corona.

About the master plan. Even the Planning Commission is aware by now that it is unacceptable to this community. The latest proposal is to modify it so it will suit. I do not believe this can be done. The man who devised this plan missed completely the essence of Carmel and the wishes of its people. We have $6000 invested in his services. Let's mark it off to experience and dismiss him. Certainly we cannot take the risk of allowing him to rewrite our zoning ordinances.

To comply with a technicality, we apparently need a plan of some sort. If we officially accept a map of our existing zoning ordinances I believe we could satisfy that requirement. Those zoning ordinances have protected this community for years. Where there have been leakages, it has been because of lack of backbone and understanding on the part of the planning commissions of the past and not because of any deficiency in the ordinances. A plan, a dozen plans, will not stiffen the backbone of a planning commission nor relieve the members of the responsibility of administering the zoning ordinances.

The planning commission will hold hearings on Livingston's plan and proposes to modify it according to the objections of the citizens. I believe those objections should take the form of a demand that the plan in every area that it touches the city of Carmel be junked. The so called green belt could be accepted. It is visionary and impossible, but harmless.

Then I think our city council should get their heads together with the merchants and figure out where we shall have some parking lots and how we are going to buy them.

I think this can be accomplished without destroying the Carmel we know or turning it into a tourist mecca. —Wilma Cook.

LIEUTENANT ROWLAND CATCHES HUGE SHARK

Lieutenant Rowland Calder, army pilot, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Bland Calder, took off a little time to go fishing between being stationed at Spence Air Base in Georgia, and a transfer to Fort Rucker, Alabama. Rowland did his fishing in Miami, Florida, on board the sport boat Skiff. What he caught was a 412 pound, 15 ounce black-fin shark measuring eight feet, ten inches.

Rowland is hoping to come home to Carmel at the end of August when he is finished with his duty at Fort Rucker.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

The everpresent power of Christian healing will be brought out at Christian Science services this Sunday.

Scriptural selections in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Christian Science" will include Christ Jesus' instruction to his disciples (Luke 10:9): "And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you."

Among the passages to be read from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, is the following (98:15): "Beyond the frail premises of human beliefs, above the loosening grasp of creeds, the demonstration of Christian Mind-healing stands a revealed and practical Science. It is imperious throughout all ages as Christ's revelation of Truth, of Life, and of Love, which remains inviolate for every man to understand and to practise."

"Go West Young Man To The East"—Rockwell

tired in 1949, he had in a large part seen to the reconstruction of war damages.

Of the Philippines itself Rockwell points out first of all that it is a stirring giant. Made up of some 7000 islands and 20,000,000 people, it is a far larger land than most people are conscious of. Almost all the people with even a smattering of education speak English, usually fluently. Visayan is spoken in the Central islands, and Tagalog, the official language, on Luzon, the principal center of population. But there are in addition thousands of dialects ranging from the tongues of the head-hunting Igorots to the Mohammedans of the South.

The Philippines are in reality so vast that there are still huge unexplored portions, Rockwell emphasizes. Although the primary roads are good, there are relatively few secondary roads, and thus large areas that remain quite isolated. Hemp and copra-growing are still the chief industries, and although a good deal of rice is grown, the latter commodity still must be imported.

Industrialization has proceeded at a relatively rapid rate since the war, and there is now a large steel fabrication plant in Manila as well as several plants for refining some of the iron ore which was entirely exported in previous times. Jim Rockwell adds that extensive oil exploration has been going on, although results have been meager to date.

The U.S. is still the primary market for the Philippines, but the fact that a new treaty allows the Philippines to begin to place tariffs on American products may well mean the beginning of formidable European trade competition for the first time, he says.

Another significant straw in the wind was the recent decision of the Japanese government to pay the Philippines some $800,000,000 in war indemnities. This will almost inevitably have the effect of making Japan an important factor in Philippines trade, Rockwell points out.

The staunchness of the Filipinos both as war-time friends and post-war allies is explained by Rockwell partly as a product of American efforts to increase education and raise the standard of living, etc., over the years, and partly in terms of the fact that the ordinary Filipino, who is pleasant and easy-going, normally likes Americans.

This was not always true of the upper classes, he adds parenthetically, who until independence were often inclined to resent Americans on social grounds (the American colony there did not mix much with Filipinos and was inclined to think of itself as somewhat superior) but even this irritant has disappeared since the granting of full independence.

The country is a land of paradoxes in many respects, Rockwell says. There is universal suffrage in the Philippines today, for instance, yet the attitude of the average Filipino toward women is inclined to be quite oriental in nature. Women do more than their share of the work, and if a man acquires wealth, he very often acquires a number of concubines or mistresses at about the same time. As in rural Mexico, a goodly number of the country population does not bother with marriage ceremonies on account of the expense involved.

The Chinese element in the population (about 75,000) serves as the distributive apparatus for the area, and almost all distributive trades are in their hands. Red China is far enough away so that there is little direct pressure, and the natural merchant outlook of most Chinese keeps this group pro-West.

Rockwell thinks that the recent Huk rebellion was more a product of the miseries of the wartime period than a symptom of a basic social unrest. With the energetic measures taken by Ramon Magsaysay, current head of the country, for alleviation of landlessness and proverty, Rockwell feels that there is not much chance of a re-occurrence of this revolt.

Of Manila, he says that it is a flat, and somewhat unattractive city in appearance—but a city of great vitality, with one of the highest costs of living in the world, and probably the greatest traffic problem.

It is also a fashion-conscious city, of many beautiful women, chicly garbed.

Just at the threshold of its economic development, Manila was a city of wonderful opportunity for many years, Jim Rockwell thinks, and that for many an ambitious young American it will continue to be both a city of great opportunity and a gateway of introduction to the orient among friends for a long time to come. To this day, it would be his choice for a place to build a career.
